

TUESDAY, JUNE 19, 1744.

Extract of a Private Letter, Paris, June 19, 1744.

W
E continue to flatter ourselves here, and certainly shall do so, till War is declared between the two Crowns; that his Sardinian Majesty will, by degrees, be brought to listen to the advantageous Proposals made him by the two Crowns, who are content to make him the most formidable Power in Italy. In the mean time however, we see a Piece of News published by Authority, which does us great Honour to that Prince, his Troops, or his Generals. I will give it in the Words of the Infant Don Philip, in a Letter to his Catholic Majesty, first published at Madrid, and then here: It runs literally thus.

"Our Troops have certainly done their Duty as well as my Troops ever did. Since we passed the Var, we have made two Lieutenant-Generals, three Colonels, one Lieutenant-Colonel, four Majors, four Adjutants, twenty-four Captains, thirty-three Lieutenants, and twenty-two Officers of inferior Rank, Prisoners, besides some private Men. That the Enemy has taken some of our People likewise, is very true; but in a most unusual Manner, equally contrary to all the Rules of War, and Maxims of Faith and common Honesty. For having set up white Flags on various Parts of their Retrenchments, at once they drew about 20 of our Officers, and 400 Soldiers, within them, in small Parties, distant from each other; and then suddenly surrounded them, forced them to lay down their Arms, and then they call making Prisoners."

We were very impatient to see what will follow upon this, and whether the two Courts will expostulate with one of Turin. Some Politicians, who love to refine upon all Things, consider this as a mere Pretence, for establishing a Kind of Intercourse with his Sardinian Majesty, even in the midst of War; a Thing practised with great Success in the last Reign; and from which, we have the more to hope in this. However that Matter be, we are thoroughly satisfied, that his Sardinian Majesty is at present engaged in some Disputes with his Allies, on Account of the new Demands he is constantly making; and we flatter ourselves, that some Time or other, this will afford us some remarkable Advantage; nothing but the Ability of a certain Minister hindered us from gaining that Prince last Year, by concluding suddenly, and before any-body expected it, the famous Treaty of Worms; a Stroke which has affected our Ministry more, than any since the beginning of the War.

We have received lately, from the Camp in Flanders, a very extraordinary Paper, which we are told, contains the Propositions made to his Majesty by the Dutch Minister, Count Wassenaar, in the Name of the States General; to which his Majesty declared, he had no Sort of Objection, provided they were agreeable to his Imperial Majesty, to whom he would cause them to be communicated immediately. If these Articles could be but decided upon, the Communication of them ought to be considered as the most important Piece of News the Publick has received for a great while. At all Events, the Politicians will be glad to see the Heads of a Peace, which his most Christian Majesty is willing to conclude; because, hitherto, we have heard of nothing but War, and Bloodshed without End, and to no Purpose.

I. His most Christian Majesty shall be suffered to acquire Ypres, Menin, Tournay, and Mons; all which may be taken after a slight Resistance.

II. His Imperial Majesty, who shall be acknowledged as that Quality by the Queen of Hungary, shall be immediately restored to his Hereditary Dominions; and shall enjoy the Imperial Crown as long as he lives.

III. The Grand Duke of Tuscany shall be declared King of Bohemia and the Romans.

IV. The Infant Don Philip shall have the Great Duchy of Tuscany.

V. The Dukedom of Savoy shall be given to the Duke of Modena; and the Dukedom of Modena shall be annexed to the Dominions of the King of Sardinia.

VI. The King of Prussia shall remain in peaceable Possession of Silesia, and Don Carlos of the Two Sicilies.

VII. The Freedom of the American Navigation shall be yielded, in such Manner, to the British Nation, as shall fully content them.

We talk here pretty much of a new Scheme for raising Money. The Clergy of France meet usually once in five Years, to settle their Temporal Affairs, at which Time, they constantly grant a considerable Sum to the King, by Way of Free-Gift. His Majesty therefore, in Consideration of the present State of Affairs, which require extraordinary Expenses, desires that this Assembly should be held in the Month of February, 1745; and that they should add Twenty Millions to their usual Sum. The Agents-General of the Clergy have written Circular Letters on this Subject to the Archbishops, Bishops, and all others, who have Seats in that Assembly; in order to bring about this Affair, without any Dispute or Confusion. These are the principal Topics of Conversation here, at present; and we may add to these, a Representation to the Count de Maurepas, from the Traders at Toulon and Marseilles, beseeching him to inform his Majesty, that they are in Danger of being totally ruined by the present War; and that if it continues a Year longer, their Commerce in the Levant will be irrecoverably destroyed.

Dublin, June 12. We hear, that the Rev. Mr. Brady will succeed the Rev. Dr. Delany, Dean of Downe, in the Chancellorship of Christ Church.

Extract of a Letter from Limerick, June 8.

"The following Adventure has so much of the Marvellous in it, that I believe it will be entertaining to inform you thereof; at the same Time you may depend it is exactly true. The Balkentine, of Liverpool, Capt. Hughes, a Letter of Marque, of 200 Tons, mounting 12 Carriage, and eight Swivel Guns, and very handsomely equip'd in every Respect, with 44 Hands, bound for the River Bonny in Africa, on the 30th of May, was struck by a large Whale, so forcibly, on the Bow and main Chains, that in about half an Hour she sunk; in which Time, they got out their long Boat and Yawl, and such Provisions as their Surprise and Time would permit, and all their Crew, and most providentially arrived, in six Days, at a Place called Ferretre's Cove, in the County of Kerry, from whence they came here. The Ship and Cargo the Master deems worth 5000l. and it really is a most remarkable Accident, and as extraordinary an Instance of Preservation, considering the Smallness of their long Boat, and that they were 60 Leagues to the Westward when this Disaster happened; the Captain, and most Part of his Crew, intend To-morrow for Dublin, from whence they will proceed to Liverpool."

Sir Thomas Hubble, of Byham, in the County of Bucks, Bart. and Member of Parliament for Great Marlow, in Buckinghamshire, who died last Week at Knightsbridge, near London, is succeeded in Honour and Estate by his Brother, the Rev. Mr. Philip Hubble, Prebend of Kilmacolway, Minister of Clonsalkin, and Chaplain to his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Dublin.

Last Saturday the Corps of the late Lord Cairn, who died a few Days ago at Scarborough, was landed here from England.

Yesterday his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Dublin, and his Family; the Rev. Sir Philip Hubble, Bart. and several other Persons of Note, embarked here for England.

L O N D O N.

We learn by private Letters from Berlin, that as soon as his Prussian Majesty had given Orders for the March of his Troops, he retired to Charlottenburgh, where he proposes to enjoy a short Retreat from Business, with which he has for some Time, been fatigued, to a Degree prejudicial to his Health.

Besides the Forces that are already in Motion, all the Troops that are at present quartered in Silesia, have received Directions to hold themselves ready to march at an Hour's Warning.

They write from Paris, that the French King is so much displeased with the the Conduct of M. de Camille, during the short Time that he commanded the Breist Squadron, that he is resolved to have him brought to a Court Martial.

The King William Privateer, of Bristol, has sent a French Privateer into Beasumoris.

The Susanna, Edmonds, arriv'd at Newfoundland the 28th of March last.

The Grizzel, Heinison, from Carolina to Rotterdam, is taken by a Spanish Privateer, and carried into Bilbao.

On Sunday Night last Admiral Lestock came from Portsmouth to his Lodgings at Charing Cross.

The same Evening Commodore Anson arrived, in good Health, from Spithead, to his Lodgings in Spring Gardens; and Yesterday he waited on the Lords of the Admiralty, and afterwards on his Majesty, at Kensington, and met with a gracious Reception.

To-morrow the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor will hold the First General Seal at Lincoln's-Inn Hall, after Trinity Term.

Last Saturday Mr. Sury, a Scowener and Dyer in Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury, being disordered in his Senses, hang'd himself in his Workshop.

Yesterday a Cause came on before the Court of Common Pleas, wherein a Hackney Coachman was Plaintiff, and a certain Butcher Defendant; the Action was brought against the Defendant for Criminal Conversation with the Plaintiff's Wife; and after a long Trial, a Verdict was given for the Plaintiff.

A few Days since the Rev. Mr. Hatfield, of Lilly, in Hertfordshire, was married to Miss Grace Brown, Sister to Dr. Brown, of Aylsey, in Bedfordshire; a Maiden Lady of a plentiful Fortune.

The Treasure brought by Commodore Anson, is expected in Town the latter End of this Week, from Portsmouth, several Waggons being hired already for that Purpose.

On Sunday Night several Ships, lying near the Her-mage, were robb'd of several Things of Value.

Deer, June 17. They lay at Calais, that their Army has made itself Master of the Covered Way at Ypres, but own it cost them a great Number of Men, and a General Officer kill'd.
